Welcome to the Manhattan Beach Community Church Theater! The MBCC Theater entertains, challenges and inspires multi-generational performers interested in the theater arts. We have a 60 year history of staging excellent productions and building great relationships as we pursue our spirituality on the stage. MBCC is an inclusive Christian church that equips each generation through spiritual growth and fellowship to serve the South Bay. No matter who you are, or where you are on life’s journey, you are welcome here!

I regard the theatre as the greatest of all art forms, the most immediate way in which a human being can share with another the sense of what it is to be a human being.

— OSCAR WILDE
Greetings From MBCC

Welcome to the Manhattan Beach Community Church Theater! We are so pleased you have joined us for this fall’s production of “Dracula.” If this is your first time with us or your thirtieth, we hope you will have a wonderful experience.

Historically, the Theater ministry here at MBCC has been a way for members of our congregation, along with individuals from the surrounding community to come together for fun and fellowship, and to share their talents on the stage. We believe that there is no better way to live out God’s call to relationship with others than to come together around a shared passion, and that is what happens in our theater ministry. We witness this wonderful fellowship among the cast and crew, and then we, the audience, receive a gift as we are invited into that fellowship during the performance.

Ministry is a gift, both when we receive it and when we offer it. The ministry of the MBCC Theater continues to be just such a gift for and from all who grace us with their presence. Thank you for being here, and enjoy the show!
Shalom…Rev. Mark Pettis

Manhattan Beach Community Church has a long, rich and inspiring history in the performing arts! We honor a diversity of artistic expressions because creativity is a reminder that we come from a Creator God. Theater gives both young and old the opportunity to expand their experiences, get to know new people and work in a group towards a common goal. I am thrilled that our church has shone a spotlight on so many of our children, youth and adults within our community, and keeps deepening year after year our expansive and talented cast bench. I wanted to send a personal note of “thanks” to you who have bought a ticket today for supporting theater at our church. I also wanted to invite you to attend Worship Service here at 10am on Sunday Mornings as well as encourage you to check out our many children & youth ministries which happen weekly. We truly are a church where “ALL are welcome.” I hope you have been entertained and blessed by this performance.
Dracula and other vampire stories coalesced in popularity in the late 19th century based on the ancient belief that blood is life. These stories are now part of our seasonal celebration. At the time in which Bram Stoker wrote Dracula, Sir Arthur Conan Doyle was creating Sherlock Holmes. The two authors corresponded and shared ideas. Stoker’s character Van Helsing and Doyle’s Sherlock Holmes have much in common. Stoker left a government post to become a theater manager for the Lyceum Theatre, working as a business manager for the famous actor Henry Irving. Stoker and Irving had many all-night conversations after Irving’s performances as Mephistopheles. Stoker’s brother, a neurosurgeon who took copious notes, might have been the model for Van Helsing, and Henry Irving could have been the model for Dracula. Stoker’s father was a doctor much like Seward, and his father’s medical treatment for his childhood illnesses was frequent bloodlettings.

Stoker wrote many horror scenarios for Irving, and while touring, Stoker researched and collected material for his novels. He did this for seven years, and his fourth novel was Dracula in 1897. It was a sensation. Stoker died in 1912 in poverty, however. Without his widow’s permission or compensation, the film Nosferatu (1922) was made and was also a great success.

Hamilton Deane wrote his 1924 version of the stage play—which was a success in London. A year later Deane would produce a successful Frankenstein as well. In 1927 the American version was produced, written by John Balderston who later went on to write the screenplays for The Mummy, The Bride of Frankenstein, and Gaslight. The American version is the one you will be seeing tonight. In this version, Dracula transforms from mist, into bat, into werewolf and finally into human form.

The recognized original vampire story came from Dr. Polidori, Lord Byron’s physician. His Vampyre was written during a writing challenge put on by Lord Byron. Polidori, together with Mary Shelley who wrote Frankenstein, Shelley’s husband Percy who wrote ghost stories, and Lord Byron himself gathered together in front of a fire, wrote and exchanged stories, each taking a turn as a storm raged outside—the lightning inspiring Mary Shelley and the shadows on the walls and windows inspiring Byron’s ghost stories. The bats and howling wolves inspired Polidori’s Vampyre. We come together and tell some of our best scary stories in front of a fire. MBCC is a great place to come and hear these stories and celebrate our humanity. Please sit back and enjoy Dracula, a gothic classic.

DRACULA
Dracula

Lucy Seward, whose father is the doctor in charge of an English sanitorium, has been attacked by some mysterious illness. Dr. Van Helsing, a specialist, believes that the girl is the victim of a vampire, a sort of ghost that goes about at night sucking blood from its victims. The vampire is at last found to be a certain Count Dracula, whose ghost is at last laid to rest in a striking and novel manner. The play is intended for all who love thrills in the theater, and is appropriate for all groups.

"Pure escape and great fun." - New York Post

"An evening of high class fun." - Newsweek

Dracula was first presented on Broadway by Horace Liveright at the Fulton Theatre in New York City on October 5, 1927. It was directed by Ira Har

God Bless you for coming and “sticking your neck out” to see MBCC’s Dracula. Kevin was blessed to find this theater and faith community, thanks to Chuck Chastain - Dr Seward, in 2009 with Hello Dolly. 6 shows later he works at Green Hills Mortuary by day helping families and by night loves to grow as a performer and entertain you all with the fun transformation of the stage. Kevin has been a stuntman in MO, and France, stage actor in IL, TX, and CA; as well as a film and commercial actor in Chicago and Los Angeles. NCIS LA, and Robbery Homicide Division were big TV credits with Flight That Fought Back being his Discovery Channel honor. Thanks to God who is good, great family including wife Rosanne and Ballerina Princess Cassandra, and the cast n production crew for their talent. IMDB.com

ERIN BECK ACAIN - LUCY

Erin has truly found a theatre home at MBCC and is thrilled to have this new show to share between friends and family. You last saw her cry away her Brigitte Bardot mascara as Joan in Lovers and Other Strangers. Other favorite credits include penguin-dancing the Shipoopi as Ethel in Music Man, towering with Gymnasia’s spear in Forum, and lamenting as Joy in Cinderella. Erin thanks the ambitious tech crew for believing in every smoke and mirror, her cast for believing in every swoon, scream, and sigh, and her hubby, Jose, for believing in her and all their lifetimes to come together.

PHILIP BARTOLF - VAN HELSING

TIM BLAKE - HARKER

Tim Blake is grateful to be working with friends both old and new as part of his first production with MBCC. If he looks familiar, he gets that a lot. But it’s possible you’ve seen him in other places such as El Segundo Broadway in the Park’s “Singin’ in the Rain” (Rod) or the Torrance Theatre Company’s “Willy Wonka” (Mr. Bucket) or “Picasso at the Lapin Agile” (Freddy). If he sounds familiar, perhaps you’ve heard him doing voiceover such as in the audiobook for “The Convert” by Fred Anderson or in the video game “Heroes of Newerth” (Ogre Blacksmith/Rift Slither). If he smells familiar, that’s another problem entirely.

TRACY MORK - MINA

Hallie has now discovered a love of makeup through her time in the theater and recently did the make up for Thoroughly Modern Millie.

Susan Norris - Costumes

Susan Norris (Costumes)—Susan saw her first MBCC shows back in the last century (Sugar and 1776) and has been a fan of this theater group ever since. Favorite shows she has directed and/or costumed and/or produced include Music Man, A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum, Once Upon a Mattress, Damn Yankees, Meet Me in St. Louis, Pirates of Penzance, A Midsummer Night’s Dream, A Comedy of Errors, Twelfth Night, Cinderella, Aladdin, Treasure Island, and Sleeping Beauty. Susan has once again enjoyed working alongside her husband, Steve, in bringing a play to life. In her spare time, she cleans up the house just in time for the next show to go into production. Well, sometimes it gets cleaned in between shows. Okay, clearly that’s just a bucket list item for her.... This November Susan will once again participate in NaNoWriMo (National Novel Writing Month) in the quest to write her 5th novel draft in just 30 days. She has truly enjoyed working with this cast and crew of talented people and wishes them lots of broken legs!

LYLE STOLTENBERG
We celebrate the life of Lyle Stoltenberg! He willingly and selflessly gave so much to the Manhattan Beach Community Church and Theater.
Charlie Stowe, MBCC Theater Music Director Emeritus, wrote as a wrap-up on our Promises Promises production in 2008: “Lyle Stoltenberg always answers the phone with “Lyle speaking”. I’ve been trying to get him to begin listening instead, but he’ll have none of it. He began his association with our shows in 1979, and his first duties included sitting in every seat in the hall (back then there were around 300 metal folding chairs) to test for structural integrity and culling out those that collapsed. Even though he has since risen to head our entire operations, I still have this image of him plopping from chair to chair and occasionally picking himself off the floor.”

George Jackson, past Theater Board president, reminds us that the name “Stoltenberg” will forever be an integral part of the history of the Manhattan Beach Community Church Theater. Both Pauline and Lyle have been a driving force that made this theater program a success. Lyle’s expertise and handiwork can be found throughout this Community Hall, as well as, our total church facilities. No project nor task was too big nor too small for Lyle to do in fine style and always with that “Lyle smile”. Chuck Chastain reminds us of his firm handshake, his hearty laugh, and his conspiratorial wink.
Anne-Marie Saunders and Patty Jarvis recall that Lyle never said “no” to whatever you asked help with. He had sparkling (laughing eyes) and a warm smile. He gave great hugs and was always supportive.
Lyle designed, engineered, and constructed much of the infrastructure of the theater as well as acting as producer on many MBCC productions! His various roles even included matchmaker, having introduced the director and costumer of this season’s “Dracula,” Steve and Susan Norris.
Thank you Lyle for so much loving support through the years!
MBCC Theater Board and the many friends who will miss your presence in their lives!

Adult Discussion Group

Every Sunday in the Assembly the Adult Discussion Group hosts informative discussions with invited speakers ranging on a number of important and relative topics. Join us for a lively, in-depth, single-topic, 70-minute discussion, typically featuring a knowledgeable authority. Share your views during the Q&A period. 8:30 AM every Sunday in the Assembly Hall.

On October 18th we will learn about Jewish traditions from Cantor Beth Garden of Congregation Tikvat Jacob Synagogue here in Manhattan Beach. Beth will discuss Jewish Holidays, Rituals, Customs, and other Traditions. Which Jewish holidays are really important? How do Jews observe the Sabbath? Why do some Jews keep kosher and others not so much? All are welcome.

Coming up in November the ADG will explore Jewish faith traditions even further in depth with Cantor Beth Garden and Dr. Rick Talbott.

For previous discussion recordings and further information visit mbccucc.org.

Sunday School & Youth Events

Our Sunday School program builds a basic foundation of Christian education our young people can take with them for a lifetime of learning. Children and teens are invited to join us in the sanctuary at 10:00 AM and then will be guided to their classrooms after the first hymn. We use three different curricula for our different age groups:

- Holy Moly (Kindergarten - 3rd Grade) Holy Moly focuses on individual Bible stories. Each lesson invites kids into a new story of the Bible through interactive storytelling and encourages creativity and imagination with responses actives.
  - Connect (4th - 5th Grade) With Connect, tweens revisit the Bible’s greatest stories, uncover major biblical themes, and discover how the Bible relates to their own lives. It is Bible-centered Sunday school with just enough quirky tween humor to get them hooked.
  - Re:Form (6th - 8th Grade) Re:form is a totally new approach to youth ministry that trusts youth to wrestle with the historic Christian faith and theology. It features 40 hilarious animated short films that frame the theological questions that youth really ask.

At MBCC, we seek to provide the youth of our community with a spiritually inclusive and socially accepting space where they can explore and grow in their faith.

We offer many fun activities and events that provide a positive fellowship experience, including creative and artistic productions that encourage our youth to share their individual gifts and talents. We seek to engage them in spiritually enriching programs where they can express their ideas and beliefs in their own words. And we provide volunteer-service opportunities to enable them to apply their faith in service to the wider community.

Some of our Youth activities include:

- Hangtime in the Youth Center
- Sunday-morning discussion groups in the Youth Center
- Confirmation classes and Confirmation Camp at Pilgrim Pines for 8th grade and above
- Theater opportunities on our Community Hall stage
- Musical-performance opportunities (on our Community Hall stage, during church services, on the beach for Easter sunrise service, and more)
- Heal the Bay volunteering
- Habitat for Humanity volunteering (age 16+)
- Special events (theme park excursions, laser tag, bowling, etc.)
Karen Hill has been the hair and make-up guru behind countless youth and adult productions at Manhattan Beach Community Church. Her expertise has made many a stellar production and her guidance on productions has been invaluable.

Karen also leads the MBCC fellowship group The Shipmates - who help in staging fun and interesting mixers for seniors in our congregation.

Thank you for sharing your talent with us. We love you.
