* Over 20 years service in MBCC productions.

Tonight you are listening to the hardcore of MBCC's musician faithfuls. Virtually everyone in the pit has played five or more shows and/or choir related concerts for us, with some, as you will note, having been around longer than they care to admit. Cultivating and nursing a sterling group like this is not easy; the strings fight with the brass, the reeds fight among themselves, and everyone fights with the conductor--who is simply trying to keep them together with whatever inconsequential activity happens to be going on, on-stage. We are fond of hoping that some day we might put on a show without any singers (come to think of it, we've got one tonight) or at least put them in the pit and us on stage; so stay tuned for yet another blow to musical theatre!

Our sincere thanks for the years of dedicated service; and with the completion of this performance, their souls will be officially saved.

RICK HEFNER - Nicely-Nicely

Rick's on-stage experience at MBCC consists of Rocky - the slow-witted and evil football player in "Dear Phoebe," and Cabot Lassiter in "Never Say Goodbye." He and his wife, Connie, produced "Godspell" and "Carnival" for the MBCC Summer Theatre. Rick is a member of the Contemporary Chorale, and he and Connie are Skippers of Mariners this year.

RON KOCH - Benny Southstreet

Ron began his career at MBCC working with the stage crew and has since appeared in MBCC productions of "Man of LaMancha," "Delegate Applegate, Damn Yankees," and "Applause." He served as Producer for "I Do, I Do" and Set Manager for "Dear Phoebe." In addition to being an Engineer with Hughes, Ron is an avid antique clock collector.

PAT JOHNSON - Rusty Charlie

Pat has performed in MBCC productions of "Applause" and "Never Say Goodbye." He also sings in the Contemporary Chorale and was a member of the Sunday Summer Singer's Group. Pat and his wife, DeAnne, were the 1984 Mariner Skippers and are the parents of six.

.....

PAT EDWARDS - Sarah

Pat has lost her man, become pregnant and almost lost her company, run for governor, remained crazy, and murdered people, in five MBCC productions beginning with "Sound of Music" to "Never Say Goodbye." She was also a poor widow as she directed and sang in the Opera, "Amahl and The Night Visitors." She directs two children's choirs and Contemporary Chorale at MBCC, plus teaches music in Manhattan Beach City Schools. The Stowe's recognized Pat's patience in her many MBCC productions and choir work, and decided it was high time she got her man for a change as the romantic lead in "Guys and Dolls."

FRANK RIDOLPHI - Arvide

Frank's first experience in a MBCC musical was in the chorus of "Applause," followed by the part of Tommy in "Never Say Goodbye." He is back again as the "Save-a-Soul" Mission Director. His entire family has participated in MBCC productions during the last year. Frank is an Advanced Systems Manager at TRW and the father of three.

RON GINERICH - Harry the Horse

This is Ron's first show at MBCC and we hope not his last. Other appearances include "Showboat," "South Pacific," "Lil' Abner," "Hello Dolly," "Applause," "Ride, Ride," and "Jesus Christ Superstar." He has been active behind the scenes as well, with technical contributions and directorial duties on many shows including "Oklahoma," "The Marriage of Figaro," "Oliver," "Guys and Dolls," "Amahl and the Night Visitors," "Gypsy," and "Sweet Charity." Ron has a Bachelor of Arts degree in Theatre Arts from California State University.

Merrick Brown - Lieutenant Brannigan
Merrick of the decibels comes to his role naturally from his experiences as a teacher, and in his annual role as Chairman of the Manhattan Beach Community Fair. His last appearance in a MBCC musical was the "Old Pro" in "Delegate Applegate." We hope he will be back soon.

TAYLOR JAY THOMPSON - Nathan Detroit
Taylor first became active in MBCC productions in 1983 with "Applause." He went on to direct the Summer Theatre production of "Godspell" and the Mariners' "Carnival." Elsewhere, Taylor has performed in and/or directed such productions as "Hamlet," "The Hasty Heart," "Guys and Dolls," "Music Man," and "The Roar of the Greasepaint/The Smell of the Crowd." Taylor is the Performing Arts Coordinator for the City of Torrance Parks and Recreation Department.

DEBBIE KLEMPA - Adelaide

Debbie has appeared in South Bay Theatre, beginning with "The King and I" at El Camino. She has also appeared in "Pajama Game," "The Music Man," "Guys and Dolls" at the Skylight Dinner Theatre, Madge in "Picnic," and Bonnie in MBCC's production of "Applause." Debbie's TV performances include roles in General Hospital, The Young and the Restless, "Summer Fantasies" (a Movie of the Week), "Brewster's Millions" (with Richard Pryor), and "Into the Night." She has been a member of MBCC for several years and she and her husband, Mark, have two beautiful children.

ROGER BOOK - Sky Masterson

Although this is Roger's first appearance in a MBCC production, he sang professionally in the Chicago area in Coffee Houses during the 1960's. Roger made his debut locally in a Mariner talent show last year and his talent was immediately recognized. He is also a guitarist and song writer of mostly contemporary ballads, with a bit of country and western. Roger has been in sales and marketing for the last twelve years and currently is the National Sales Manager for a division of a vitamin company. He is married and he and his wife, Christie, have two children, Chelsea and Scott.

BARBARA HAMMER - Vocal Director

Barbara plays General Wainwright in addition to her many hours spent as Vocal Director. She began working with Brown and Grossman in the old Mariner shows after her training at USC. Selected from her many rolls with our theatre group, her favorites are Mother Superior in "Sound of Music," Mrs. Abernathy in "Delegate Applegate," Magda, the housekeeper in "Night of January 16," and Mrs. Parrish in "Dear Phoebe." Barbara has been a soloist with MBCC choir for many years, and when not busy with these activities, is a consultant to the El Segundo Schools.

STEVE CAMPBELL - Big Julie

Steve returns to the MBCC stage after a ten-year hiatus. In 1975 he played the home town reporter in "The Man Who Came to Dinner." But now that he is Vice President of Investments at Paine & Webber, he has come home to be "big Julie," the high roller.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Special thanks to Charles Turner for his advice and support with the scenic design.

SALLY STOWE - Director

Sally appeared as Dolly in "Hello Dolly," first at Redondo Beach Musical Theatre, and again at El Camino. She has been directing musicals going back to "The Music Man," "Bye Bye Birdie," "How to Succeed...", "Man of LaMancha," "Sound of Music," "Damn Yankees," "I Do, I Do," and "Applause," etc. Her expertise in all facets of musical production is unsurpassed, e.g. director, set design, set painting, costumes, choreography, and props; and combined with her unfailing good humor, rehearsals are fun and you, the audience, are guaranteed a great show.

CHARLIE STOWE - Music Director

This year Charlie is back in the pit with the snakes and alligators where he belongs. His recent on-stage performances in "I Do, I Do" and "Never Say Goodbye," coupled with memories of his yesteryear appearance as "The Music Man" led to the initiation of a recall referendum, at least for the time being. He's used to failure, however, he was the losing lawyer in "Night of Jan. 16th," he lost the girl in "... Goodbye," and threw snake eyes in the "Guys and Dolls" auditions. Welcome back to obscurity, Charlie.

LYLE & PAULINE STOLTENBERG - Producers The Stoltenbergs have been involved in many of the Shipmate's productions; this is their 3rd year as Producers. Lyle appeared in "Damn Yankees," but is happier behind the scenes with a hammer and saw. They are former Skippers of Shipmates and have been at MBCC for 11 years.

MIKE NEARY - Light & Sound Engineer Mike is the chief engineer of our sophisticated light and sound systems. He also coordinates the light and sound systems during all performances. He graduated from Clarkson College of Technology in N.Y with an EE, and has worked at Xerox for 13 years. It was a fortunate day for us when Mike and his wife, April, joined us back in 1978.

LYNN & ANN HENNE - Stage Managers The Hennes are valued members of the back stage team and have managed the last 9 shows. They have built a reputation as quick change artists unparalleled. They manage to keep a sense of humor while herding scores of people on and off the stage, making fast set changes and seeing that everyone has the right prop. They are proud parents of a son.

GEORGE & BARBARA HAMMER - Skippers They've been members of MBCC for 34 years after being married in the old sanctuary. George is past Moderator and has served on the Finance Board and as a Trustee. Barbara was Youth Choir Director, served on the Music Board and they both have sung in the choir nearly 34 years. After years in Mariners, they graduated to Shipmates and are this year's Skippers.

SHIPMATES

The Shipmates of Manhattan Beach Community Church are devoted to fellowship and good fun, in addition to providing service to the church. They have produced plays and musicals for many years as a major fund raiser for such projects as the 1736 House, food closet, and Technoserve, along with donations to MBCC improvements. Both couples and singles are invited to join Shipmates.

Some of our recreational activities include potlucks, concerts and plays, campouts, bike rides, and dining out.

It is our good "luck" that once again Charlie and Sally Stowe accepted the Director reins. We want to thank our untiring production staff and construction crew. We also wish to acknowledge and thank all members of our church family; the advertisers, local business people, patrons, and especially you, our audience, who make this such a successful event. Thank you!!
