PAT EDWARDS - (Florence)

Mrs. Edwards graduated as a music major from Pomona College and has taught music in the L.A. City Schools for 7 years. She sang with the Roger Wagner Chorale and has sung and acted the "Mother" in "Amahl and the Night Visitors". She appeared as the house-keeper in "Man Of La Mancha". Pat is a member of our choir & often serves as soloist. She also directs the Contemporary Choir. She is proving to be a very talented actress as well as musician.

PAUL HENNESSEY - (Hannibal)

Paul is a newcomer to our stage, but is well known in local little theatre circles. Paul studied with the Robert Gist Workshop and has appeared in Showcase Theatre productions as Bob in "Mary, Mary", Titus in "The Curious Savage" and in "Not Now Darling". Mr. Hennessey has also done some professional songwriting. We welcome him to our stage.

LINDA MACK - (Fairy May)

Linda played Aunt Eller in "Oklahoma" in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. She also did Elsie in "Plain Jane" at the Cedar Rapids Summer Theatre. Mrs. Mack is a special education teacher and has taught in California, Illinois, Connecticut and Michigan. She sang in choirs at the University of Iowa and Illinois. Welcome to our stage!

BILL PARK - (Jeff)

Bill is a sustaining member of Shipmates productions. He appeared as the villain in thier first production "Bessie" and the stern minister in "Silver Whistle", Mr. Turner in "Terrible Turners" and the eager young policeman in "January 16". He served as assistant director in "Man Who Came to Dinner" and directed "George Washington Slept Here".

SHIRLEY SANDERS - (Mrs. Paddy)

Shirley is well known on our stage. She has appeared in "The Terrible Turners", "Night of January 16th" and played the harried Mrs. Stanley in "Man Who Came to Dinner" and most recently the wayward maid Hester in "George Washington Slept Here".

DAVID BRADBURN - (Titus)

David is a retired Air Force General. He now is serving as church moderator. Mr. Bradburn has played trumpet in many Mariner musicals and appeared as the boss in Mariners production of "How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying". We welcome him to the Shipmates stage.

GEORGE HAMMER - (Samuel)

George made his first appearance with us in "The Man Who Came to Dinner". He went on to play the lead in "George Washington Slept Here" and last year played the Governor in "Man of La Mancha". George has served as church moderator and sings in the church choir.

EILEEN QUASS - (Lilybelle)

Eileen has graced our stage as the flighty Miss Haskins in "The Terrible Turners", the brassy Roberta in "January" and Maggie in "The Man Who Came to Dinner". She was last seen as Rita in "George Washington Slept Here". Eileen hails from England and now serves as secretary to the church.

BERNICE MCMAHON - (Mrs. Savage)

Mrs. McMahon gave a memorable performance as the caustic Mrs. Hammer in "The Silver Whistle". She also co-directed "Night of January 16" for Shipmates. Her theatrical experience extends to Davenport Iowa where she received the Masquers award as best actress. Bernice added more awards to her credit at the University of Iowa. Locally she starred in "The Solid Gold Cadillac" for Manhattan Players and "Glass Menagerie" for Chapel and was winner of best actress and best character actress awards in both little theatres. She was named as best supporting actress in the Pacific Coast Tournament of 1 Act Plays.

BARBARA HAMMER - (Miss Willie)

Mrs. Hammer has appeared on our stage as the weepy Aunt Marcia in "The Terrible Turners", the prudish Magda in "January 16" and Sarah in "Man Who Came to Dinner". She is also remembered as the loving Irish Mother in Mariners "Music Man". Barbara is a long time choir member & often solos with the choir. She is also heading our makeup department.

CHARLES ELKIND - (Dr. Emmett)

A native San Franciscan, Elkind now resides in Manhattan Beach with wife Rocky. He first appeared on our stage as the cantankerous neighbor in "George Washington Slept Here". He has done scenes from "Equus", "Plaza Suite" and "Ducks and Lovers" with the Redondo Drama Workshop.

BETTY GINSBACH - (Artist)

A special round of applause is due Betty who painted the beautiful garden scene for our set. Mrs. Ginsbach has helped on numerous productions, including "Man Who Came to Dinner" (Remember the Mummy Case?) and "George Washington Slept Here".

BOB STEWART - (Assistant to the Director)

Bob served as stage manager for many Mariner productions and first moved onto the stage as Emmett in "The Silver Whistle". He has since added Dr. Bradley in "Man Who Came to Dinner" and Mr. Kilmer in "George Washington Slept Here" to his credits. Bob serves as photographer for Shipmates and their productions. He plays Dr. Emmett the last week-end of production as well as his duties as assistant director.

WANDA TAYLOR - (Director)

Wanda played the persecuted heroine Bessie in Shipmates first production and appeared as the religious fanatic, Mrs. Gross in "The Silver Whistle". She was assistant director in "Terrible Turners", and directed "January 16" and "The Man Who Came to Dinner". In "George Washington Slept Here" she was assistant director and played Mrs. Douglas. Mrs. Taylor also appeared in local little theatre productions

WALT TAYLOR - (Stage Manager)

Walt returns as stage manager, a position he has filled for several Shipmates productions. He has also appeared in "The Silver Whistle", "The Man Who Came to Dinner" & "George Washington Slept Here". He assisted on sets for several Mariner shows and played Mr. Hassler in Mariners "Pajama Game". Last year he did the lighting for "Man of La Mancha".

SHIPMATES:

The Shipmates of the Manhattan Beach Community Church is an organization of adults devoted primarily to good fun and fellowship while providing a service to the church. Productions such as the one you are seeing this evening have been presented annually for a number of years by the Shipmates as their major fund raising project. All funds thus derived have been used for improvements to the Community Hall in which you are now seated, or for such worthwhile projects as the Food Closet. Won't you join us at our next event?
